Common Forms and Styles

Victorian china fairings vary widely in form, style, and purpose. Understanding these distinctions enhances a collector's ability to identify, date, and value them.

Figurines and Miniatures

Small ceramic figurines, often depicting children, angels, animals, or romantic scenes, are among the most recognizable fairings. These figurines were typically hand-painted with detailed features and vibrant glazes. They could range from a few centimeters to around 10 centimeters in height and were designed to be displayed on shelves or mantels.

Plaques and Tiles

Decorative plaques, often rectangular or oval, feature elaborate scenes, moral lessons, or floral motifs. Some were glazed and framed, intended for hanging, while others served as coasters or decorative tiles. These were popular as gifts or home decor.

Tokens and Medals

Small, flat tokens or medals with embossed or painted images served as souvenirs or charitable tokens. These often bore inscriptions, dates, or logos, and could be made of porcelain, glazed earthenware, or biscuit porcelain.
